

	LIVE CONFERENCE	SOFT HYBRID	FULL HYBRID	HYBRID WITH LIBRARY	FULL VIRTUAL
Content collection, preparation and management	← standard →		some curation for virtual consumption	← specific curation of content need →
On-site participant	✓	✓	✓	✓	✗
Remote speakers	possibly	some remote speakers	← fully supported and trained →
Remote participants	none	passive participation streaming only	← full active participation →
Reuse	recordings in library	recordings in library	← interactive use of recordings →
Economical model	standard	added costs of streaming and recording	two parallel worlds - live and virtual - double the technical costs	main session hybrid, low attendance sessions turned to library	virtual live conference with possible interactive library
Timeframe	standard	standard	← slightly changed to support remote participants →		fully accustomed to remote participation plus off time access
Access to content	limited by live time schedule	limited by live time schedule, plus later recordings	limited by live time schedule, plus later recordings (full content)	main session limited by live time schedule, virtual in library, full content in context	main session broadcasted live and in library, potential to consume all content
Library	if recorded	recordings	recording with comments	← recording with comments and ongoing off time discussion →
Exhibition	towards live participants	standard for live, some virtual	← split exposure live / virtual →		change to virtual
Sponsors	live stands	live stands, no virtual coverage	← split exposure live / virtual →		new way for interactive expo / self paced